Notes for Franey LOLLY:

"One of the old settlers of the country was Jerry Lolly, who came here with several of his brothers and settled the Wilton Allen place, at the crossing of the Tuscaloosa and Elyton roads. This was in 1820. They were the ancestors of the Lolly family, who have since that time lived within a few miles of the spot where old man Jerry Lolly first struck camp seventy-five years ago. Along with the Lollys came Daniel and Hiram Holsomback, two sturdy old pioneers. They too settled near Dogwood church, and their numerous descendants still occupy that portion of the country." Montevallo News 25 Jul 1895

"In the year 1815, ... Henry Lolly, the father of Joe and Lewis Lolly, was also of the same party. Jesse Lolly, the father of William Lolly, also came at the same time. The oldest one of these pioneers, however, is Andrew Lolly, who is hale and hearty and is now approaching the ripe old age of 90. Among the others were Vince Garner, grandfather of Lewis Garner; George Lucas, father of Wm. and John Lucas; John Walker, the father of Elias Walker; Abner Pickett, the father of Braz. Pickett, and John Lolly, the father of Mrs. Fronia Lucus." Montevallo News 15 Aug 1895

all three houses was from his wood

he would drive out once in a while in his orange truck

Generation 4 (con't)

retired went into show dogs, pugs started with black pug named Mollie, champion was a fawn pug named Hercules one day they got a call that someone was looking for black pug puppies, and the Kennel club referred them to my grand parents. black was not fashionable at the time. person was the Duke of Windsor (gave up throne for Mrs. Simpson) but didn't have any black at the time had a german short-hair pointer, good at finding cottonmouth snakes on the old aurora elgin railway, which was turned into a nature trail. gfather killed and took to Brookfield zoo for id. couldn't find where it came from. couldn't play on the nature trail for a whole summer.

used to get free tobacco sample from my dad that were all dried out. he didn't care. if it was cigars, he would cram the cigar into his pipe and smoke.

He liked Mogan David wine.

On thanksgiving, every kid had to sit on his lap and take a sip of wine and a take a puff from his pipe or cigar. The pipe was grosser, crusted with dry spit or calcium,

He maintained a 1/4-acre garden all the time

He had 2 big apple trees, 3 or 4 crab apple trees, 1 mulberry tree

Neatest feature on their land was a water hole, an underground spring, that came from across the road and then it eroded away a hole that was about 10x4 feet. discovered it when building his house. A fox lived there. kille fox. took willow branch and stuck in the ground there.

3 or 4 inch across. grew to about 3ft across truck, gigantic

Deadly hipshooter with lawn darts, bow and arrow, anything.

He was a tremendous pool player. In his drinking days, he used to make extra money down in Johnston City. He played pool once a year and never missed. I never saw anyone beat him.

Always gardening. He used a Rototiller to grind up the garden every year.

Didn't know any of grandfather's brothers

He married Melba Louise HASEKER on 08 Feb 1948 in Marion, Williamson, Illinois, USA. She was born on 21 Aug 1930 in Marion, Williamson, Illinois, USA.

Notes for Melba Louise HASEKER:

"Ed and I were married 08 Feb 1948 when I was 17 and still in high school. We had become engaged when I was 16 and had to wait till he got a furlough to come home from Alaska, where he was stationed. After two weeks, he went back to Alaska and I went back and finished high school.

"When he was reassigned to Ft. Lewis, Washington, I joined him and our first child, Stan, Jr., was born at Ft. Lewis. When Stan Jr. was 15 months old, Ed went to Korea in the first bunch to go there to fight the war. He already had been in World War II in Europe and also Japan. That, of course, was before I even knew him. He was in Europe on D-Day, but he can't remember where. (He has lost a lot of memory from the strokes he suffered in the early 1990s.)

"When Stan Jr. was two and a half, Ed was sent back to the states after having survived the Korean War. In one week over 4500 men were killed where he was. He repaired guns and cannons. When he came home we were transferred to Camp Breckenridge, Kentucky and then later to Ft. Jackson, South Carolina. We were in South Carolina over a year and during that time he made a decision to leave the military after 10 years of active duty.

"We came to Utah not knowing a soul or never having been here. It is my testimony that the Lord led us here so we could hear about the restored gospel of Jesus Christ and join the Latter Day Saint (Mormon) Church. We had never even heard of the Church and knew nothing about it. But we were blessed and within three days after arriving here, Ed had been hired and was working. We soon found an apartment and began our civilian life in Utah - not many blocks from where we live now.

:"We were blessed with David, our second son, and then Joyce, our only daughter after coming to Utah." Source: Letter from Melba Lucas, 28 Jul 1997.
